

SCUOLA SUPERIORE DI LINGUE MODERNE PER INTERPRETI E TRADUTTORI

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

9th November 2008

To whom it may concern:

I am very pleased to recommend Silvia Cicciolessere for admission to your University's exchange program. As her teacher of English Language at the University of Bologna, I can confirm that Silvia is bright, intelligent and capable. By way of evidence, during the three-year degree which she previously did at the University of Trieste she was awarded two scholarships by different European organizations: by the Socrates Erasmus programme to study at the University of Granada, and by the CIUTI programme to study at Herriot-Watt University.

After graduating with 110 e lode/110 (the equivalent of a first class honours degree in Britain, summa cum laude) in Applied Interlingual Communication studies at the University of Trieste, she successfully passed the competitive admission test for the Conference Interpretation Master's Course at the University of Bologna. She is currently following this course.

Silvia has also distinguished herself in writing skills outside the University, having been awarded young people's literary prizes for poems and short stories. She has published a novel and she continues to pursue writing as a sideline.

I can unhesitatingly recommend Silvia to you as a student. If you should need any additional information, feel free to contact me at cresswell@sslmit.unibo.it or on +390543374515 (office) or +390543374505 (switchboard).

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Cresswell,
